Williamstown, Mass. – The Williams College Museum of Art (WCMA) presents Jean Pool: Senior Studio Art Exhibition. The exhibition, which will be on view from May 11 through June 3, 2012, features the work of 17 Williams College studio art majors: Monel Chang, Carlos Diaz-Sullivan, Susannah Emerson, Chloe Feldman Emison, Katharine Gallagher, Richie Iskra, Ariel Kavoussi, Mitchell Martinez, Grace McEniry, Erin McGonagle, Dominique Rodriguez, Lucy Rollins, Julia Seyferth, Deonarine Soogrim, Aubree Stephens, Pamela Summers, and Sydney Tooze. The senior studio exhibition celebrates the culmination of each artist's senior project. The exhibition will open with a free, public reception on Friday, May 11 at the museum, beginning at 7:00 p.m. All are invited to attend.

The Class of 2012 has worked in a wide array of media including: video, oil and acrylic paint, homemade vegetable paint, ink, photography, steel, papier-mâché, social practice, text, hand printed wallpaper and multi media installation. The work draws inspiration from diverse sources, exploring such far ranging issues as: the human condition, the complexity of communication, environmental concerns, truth, problem sets and their resolution, innocence, chaos, and portraiture.
